San Diego County Registrar of Voters

Rebeca Lee serves as the Volunteer and Public Services Coordinator for the San Diego County Registrar of Voters, where she has played a pivotal role since 2018. Beginning as an assistant, she quickly advanced to become the intern for Spanish language services within just two months. Six months later, her dedication and expertise led to her appointment as the coordinator, a position she has held with distinction ever since.

Originally from the historic city of Morelia, the capital of the state of Michoacán, Mexico, born to an American Veteran living and working abroad, she spent her formative years traveling across various states in Mexico before settling in Mexico City, where she completed her high school education and her first year of university.

In 1973, Rebeca ventured to San Diego to pursue her university studies at San Diego State University, eventually obtaining a teaching credential. She started her career as a teacher at the Sweetwater Union High School District in 1979.

A trailblazer in bilingual education, advocacy, and activism, Rebeca, has long been dedicated to championing the rights of underserved communities. Her activism extends beyond her professional endeavors, through her involvement in numerous professional and community organizations. These include the California Association of Bilingual Educators (CABE), MANA, Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlán (MEChA), HOSA-Future Health Professionals, San Diego County Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, House of Mexico, and the House of Mexico Foundation. Despite her busy schedule, Rebeca remains committed to lend a hand to those in need.
